THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1965

The Senate met at 9:30 o'clock a.m., and was called to order by the Acting President pro tempore (Mr. METCALF). The Chaplain, Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, D.D., offered the following prayer:

O Thou who in the quietness dost speak to listening hearts, we pray Thee to kindle the thoughts, that color our outlook to all that we see and touch for we know that only to the pure dost Thou grant the vision of Thy face.

May those who here speak for the people be patient in argument, charitable in judgment, and slow to wrath. Grant us to know Thee that we may truly love Thee, and so love Thee that we may freely serve Thee.

We would bring to this, our daily altar of prayer, our inmost selves cluttered and confused, where the good and evil, the petty and the great, the wheat and the tares, are so entwined.

In our private lives, and in our public service, help us this and every day, to live more nearly as we pray.

In the Redeemer's name we ask it. Amen.

Mr. MCINTYRE. Mr. President, it is a distinct pleasure for me to rise in support of the confirmation of Bernard Boutin as Deputy Director of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

I have known Bernie Boutin for over 20 years as a neighbor, a fellow Democrat, and a close friend. His confirmation today is a tribute to the record of accomplishment which he has built as an outstanding public servant.

Bernard Boutin served as mayor of my home city of Laconia, N.H., for two terms, during which he demonstrated the administrative ability, capacity for hard work, and sterling honesty which have characterized his public service. The mayoralty of Laconia can be a different job, as I know from experience, but Mayor Boutin's record paved the way for a long succession of Democratic mayors from Laconia.

Bernard Boutin came to Washington as Deputy Administrator of the General Services Administration during the be-
